

FOR SUPERIOR COURT

HARTLEY SHAW HAS DECIDED TO MAKE RACE FOR LONG TERM

Hartley Shaw of 212 West Park avenue, who recently announced his candidacy for Superior Court judge for the short term, has decided to stand for the long term. Mr. Shaw has been a citizen of Tropic and Glendale since 1911, and of Los Angeles county since 1887. He has practiced law in the county since 1897, and has a high reputation among the legal fraternity. His father, Judge Lucien Shaw, now on the State Supreme bench, was Superior Court judge in Los Angeles county for a number of years and it is a commendable ambition for the son to wish to follow in his father's footsteps. Mr. Shaw is a highly respected citizen of Glendale and his candidacy has elicited many favorable expressions.

There are 20 Superior Court judges 10 of them to be elected this year. The term of office is six years.

WATER BONDS SOLD

PART OF THE $260,000 ISSUE VOTED ARE PURCHASED BY L. C. BRAND AND BANKS

An action of far-reaching importance to the City of Glendale was taken at last night's meeting of the Board of Trustees. When the city manager reported to the board that L. C. Brand had agreed to take, at par, $50,000 worth of the $260,000 five per cent bond issue recently authorized by a vote of the city for water and light extensions, and that the banks of Glendale had agreed to take the same amount, the sale of this $100,000 worth of bonds was authorized to be made. And it was ordered that from the proceeds the following improvements be financed: An additional well and second pumping unit at the main pumping plant on San Fernando Road; the laying of the 16-inch main up Grand View avenue; the purchase of additional cast iron pipe for extensions of the water service. It was also ordered that the extension of the lighting system to the Grand View district be undertaken at once and pushed to early completion.

In the 14 years of the City of Glendale as such this is the first time it has been necessary to ask the banks for financial aid in floating a bond issue and in view of the prompt response of the banks to this request the Board of Trustees thought it proper to adopt a resolution of appreciation.

CHRISTIAN BAPTISM

EVANGELIST ROOT PREACHES ON THIS TOPIC AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

To the largest crowd of the week, filling the auditorium of the Christian church last night, Evangelist C. C. Root gave his chart sermon on "Christian Baptism." After emphasizing that there is no Scriptural authority for belief that baptism is a "mere" form, a non-essential or the outward manifestation of an inward grace, the evangelist, from his chart spoke on the antecedents, the requirements and the consequences of baptism, for each item giving a "thus saith the Scriptures."

According to the Word of God, the antecedents of baptism are preaching the gospel, hearing, faith, repentance and confession, without which there is no Christian baptism. The Scriptures require water, much water, a going into and out of the water, a burial, a resurrection, a planting, all symbolic of the death, burial and resurrection of Christ. The consequences are remission of sins, the gift of the Holy Spirit, a newness of life, and the answer of a good conscience toward God.

Five persons united with the church last night. A delegation from the Pico Heights Christian church, Los Angeles, was present. Dr. Donaldson and Mrs. E. L. Smith sang a gospel duet to the delight of the audience.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fiscus of Marshalltown, Ia., both musicians, will play saxophone and cornet and sing. They have come to California to assist Evangelist Root in meetings.

WEATHER FORECAST—Unsettled weather tonight and Saturday. Probably no rainfall of importance.

TRUSTEES' MEETING

BID OF L. C. BRAND AND LOCAL BANKS FOR WATER BONDS IS ACCEPTED

The Board assembled at 7:40 p. m., April 8, 1920. There were present Trustees Henry, Jackson and Shaw. (Trustee Woodberry entered at 7:50 p. m.). In the absence of the chairman, Trustee Jackson was appointed chairman pro tem.

A committee was present representing the Greater Glendale Development Association, and Mr. Huntley addressed the Board urging that action be taken looking toward the straightening and extension of West Broadway from Central avenue to San Fernando Road.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, the matter was referred to the Committee of the Whole, and to the City Engineer to prepare the necessary descriptions in accordance with the plan as sketched on the map of the same.

Mattison B. Jones presented to the Trustees a petition requesting the opening and extension of Patterson avenue from Grand View avenue at the pumping plant to a connection with Brand boulevard. Petition was accompanied by a map showing the proposed extension.

On motion of Trustee Woodberry, the matter was referred to the Committee of the Whole, and to the City Engineer to prepare descriptions in accordance with the plan set forth on the map.

Communication was read from Attorney Marcus A. Woodward addressed to the Trustees in their official capacity, and also as individuals, in the name of Anna E. Baisley, to the effect that she holds each and all of them officially and personally liable for damage to her son, Cecil H. Baisley, who was shot in the leg by Officer Guy Wilson on the 18th of January, 1920, and demanding that the same be given immediate consideration. Referred to City Attorney.

Communication was read from William Griffin, requesting that the Trustees transfer to him a plumbing license issued to Chester A. Fox, as he had acquired the business of the latter in the City of Glendale. Upon the advice of the City Attorney to the effect that the ordinance does not provide for such a transfer, the request was on motion of Trustee Shaw denied.

Reports were presented from the City Treasurer, Building Inspector and Superintendent of Streets.

The report of the Building Inspector showed 89 permits granted during the month of March, at a valuation of $283,777.00, the fees amounting to $222.25. Plumbing fees for the same month, $132.00. Fees for electrical permits, $157.08, a total of $511.33 for the month.

Demands were presented and referred to the Finance Committee. Later, the Finance Committee reported them back approved, and on motion of Trustee Shaw, warrants were ordered to be issued in payment of the same.

A report was read from the City Manager to the effect that L. C. Brand has agreed to take fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) worth of the issue of $260,000.00 in bonds, and that the local banks will take a similar amount, these purchasers paying par and accrued interest. The report stated that this makes it possible for the Trustees to go ahead immediately with the plans for the installation of two additional wells and a second pumping unit at the pumping plant on Grand View avenue, and also the construction of the trunk line on Grand View. Communication further recommended that the contract for one additional well for which bids had been received and accepted be let at once; and further, that specifications for cast iron pipe be prepared and bids be received for approximately $10,000.00 worth, as pipe will shortly be needed. PRESIDENT TO VETO PEACE RESOLUTION

CHAMP CLARK TELLS THE HOUSE MEASURE WILL NEVER BECOME EFFECTIVE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, April 9.—President Wilson is certain to veto the resolution declaring peace which is expected to pass the House late this afternoon, Champ Clark, Democratic leader, declared in today's debate on the measure. "The resolution will never become effective, and the Republicans in trying to pass it are like a bull which tries to butt a railroad train off the track," Clark said. He expressed doubt of the resolution's receiving a majority vote in the senate.

SWITCHMEN'S STRIKE

SAID TO BE ONE HUNDRED PER CENT EFFECTIVE IN LOS ANGELES; EMBARGO ON PERISHABLES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LOS ANGELES, April 9.—An absolute embargo on citrus fruits and other perishables was announced today by the three railroads running into Los Angeles as a result of the nation-wide rail strike. The Southern Pacific admitted that no freight had been moved out over its lines since the strike became effective here early yesterday and that there is no immediate probability of any being moved.

The Salt Lake and Santa Fe roads claimed to be moving both local and through freight but announced that in view of the uncertainty of conditions it would take no chances on any perishables. All the roads claimed to be moving passenger trains on nearly normal schedules.

The strike movement has grown among switchmen until this morning it was practically one hundred per cent efficient, according to the strikers.

RAIL STRIKE AFFECTS INDUSTRIES

MANY FORCED TO CLOSE FOR LACK OF MANUFACTURING MATERIAL AND COAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
CHICAGO, April 9.—Industries in many sections of the country were closing down today because of inability to obtain supplies as a result of the unauthorized strike of railway yardmen and switchmen. The strike which started in Chicago has spread through the leading railway yards of the nation from New York to San Francisco. Estimates placed the number of strikers at approximately 25,000 men. The railroads reported passenger service still unaffected but that thousands of cars loaded with food supplies stood on the switches. The food situation will become serious in many cities in case the strike continues another week, the authorities declared.

Shortage in coal was the first result of the strike felt by the industries. Steel plants in Buffalo, Gary and other cities were forced to close because of lack of coal. Mines of coal in Illinois and Indiana fields were shutting down. Livestock yards received only small supplies. Fifty-thousand men were idle in Chicago, according to estimates.

Officials of the Railroad Brotherhood are opposing the strike. They said it was the result of the organization of the "rump" union. Investigation of the strike was started by the Department of Justice under the direction of Attorney General Palmer, with a view of possible action under the Lever Act.

MUSICAL DEBUT

MADRIGAL CLUB MAKES ITS BOW TO THE PUBLIC IN DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM

The Madrigal Club of Glendale made its debut Friday evening at the Keller Studio before a large and appreciative audience which included many musicians naturally interested in the work which the organization is doing. Under the inspiring leadership of Mrs. Charles Addison Parker, and the fine accompanist, Mrs. John A. Wright, it did excellent work.

The list of assisting artists included Mrs. Fred P. Rossiter, a local singer comparatively new to Glendale audiences whose high, clear soprano voice was well suited to the interpretation of the French "Chanson Provencale," which was her opening number and which was followed by a very beautiful encore number, "I Will Await Thee." Her accompanist was Mrs. Ray Campbell.

A visiting trio, Mrs. Frederick Jungquist, saxophone; Mrs. Harry Underwood, violin, and Mrs. Dettie A. Lee, piano, made a fine impression, all their numbers being warmly enjoyed.

The chorus numbers were the more enjoyed because unusual and unconventional. They included "Invocation" (Rogers), "The Snowstorm" (Rogers); "The Call" (Mark Andrews), a joyous spring song beginning "Love comes laughing up the valley, hand in hand with hoyden spring." This provided a charming novelty in an interpretation. (Continued on Page 8)

MISS ETHEL PARSONS' AUTO TURNS TURTLE

Miss Ethel Parsons of the Bank of Glendale was driving west on Broadway last evening at 5:30 and at the Louise street crossing she turned so quickly to the left to avoid striking a car going north that her machine turned completely over throwing her out. She was quickly on her feet and the boys from the fire house hearing the crash came running, fearing she was badly hurt. Happily this was not so, but she had several cuts on her face, which bled profusely, and her left wrist was sprained. Her car was righted and found to be damaged hardly at all, except the top. Tom Smith of the Ford agency took her to her home, 634 East Elk avenue, in his own car and she is at work this morning.

PAY TAXES AT CITY HALL

A deputy from the tax collector's office will open headquarters at the Glendale City Hall, on April 12th, and remain until the 16th, in order to accommodate all the taxpayers of the City of Glendale who desire to pay the last half of taxes at home. During business hours, taxes will be received and an official receipt exchanged. You will get the same service as if you should visit the Hall of Records, and by taking advantage of this accommodation, you will save a trip to the city and avoid the rush that is now in progress at the Hall of Records.

Supervisor Dodge requests that those who reside in Glendale should take advantage of this accommodation on the above dates.

MONDAY'S ELECTION

BRIEF BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES OF THE MUNICIPAL CANDIDATES AT MONDAY'S ELECTION

At next Monday's Municipal election there are three trustees to be elected, city treasurer and a city clerk. Below we give a brief biographical sketch of all the candidates:

Ann Patrick Bartlett

Ann Patrick Bartlett (Mrs. H. E. Bartlett), who is a candidate for the office of trustee, is a daughter of Ohio, but when she was a small child moved with her parents to Iowa where she grew to womanhood and received her education. For two years she taught in the public schools and then, upon her marriage to Mr. Bartlett, who was then a resident of Southern California, she came with him to Upland, near Ontario, eighteen years ago and in the home they then established she remained until she and Mr. Bartlett came to Glendale to live twelve years ago. Since casting her lot with the people of Glendale she has filled a number of public positions. She was an active worker in all the Liberty Bond drives during the war and unceasing in her service for the Red Cross, succeeding J. H. Braly as chairman of the local chapter after the signing of the armistice.

James E. Peters

James E. Peters was born in Mt. Carmel, Ill., in 1879 and was one of 13 children. When but 14 years of age he began doing a man's work, helping to support the family. He was married in 1901 and two years later began business on a capital of $55. At the end of seven years, when he sold it to come to California to live, this business was the largest of its kind in the city, if not the entire county. He and a friend embarked in the general merchandise business in Glendale Dec. 1, 1910, and they built up a large and profitable trade. Mr. Peters sold out to his partner on Jan. 1, 1917. He has built and sold several houses in Glendale, and built the Peters block on North Brand, adjoining the Palace Grand, which he still owns. Mr. Peters is now living at 209 N. Orange. He has a wife, two daughters and one son.

Claud O. Pulliam

C. O. Pulliam could be claimed by Glendale's Missouri colony as he was born at Columbia, Mo., December 18, 1869. At the age of eleven he moved with his parents to Kansas City and after a brief residence there moved again with his parents to a Missouri farm where he spent the years between his fourteenth and twenty-first birthdays. The Pulliam family then returned to Kansas City where Mr. Pulliam resided until he came to Los Angeles and then to Glendale, establishing early in the spring of 1907 at Everett and Wilson avenue the business which he has since followed. At that time he leased a portion of his building to the City Library. He is just beginning his twelfth year of service as a member of the High School Board of Trustees. He has been a property owner here ever since he located in Glendale, and built at California and Kenwood the home he occupied until two years ago. His present home is at 352 Salem street.

Spencer Robinson

At Rock Island, on the banks of the Mississippi, Spencer Robinson, candidate for the office of city trustee, was born. He still defends Illinois as one of the finest states in the Union, but his travels as a professional singer gave him an opportunity to compare it with others and he succumbed to the lure of California, coming here seventeen years ago to make his permanent home. In 1911 he gave up his professional career to engage in business as a real estate operator. His work along that line has made him exceptionally well acquainted with the district and its needs and he is a great booster for Glendale.

Dwight W. Stephenson

Illinois can claim credit as the birthplace of Dwight W. Stephenson, the ex-service man who is a candidate for office as city trustee. He was born in Oneida, Ill., in January, twenty-seven years ago. He and his parents have been residents of Glendale in the home they built on South Glendale avenue for about twelve years and following his graduation from Glendale Union High School in 1911 he took a law course in the University of Southern California, was admitted to the bar and began the practice of law in the offices of the Title Guarantee & Trust Company in Los Angeles. After a year's experience there he entered the of- (Continued on Page 8)

JOHNSON DEFENDED

JOHN HYDE BRALY GIVES TRUTH ABOUT SEN. JOHNSON ON WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE

In the Times of April 7th appeared an article entitled "Johnson's Claim Amazes Women." Now I was not aware that Senator Johnson has claimed the support of California women on account of his activities in behalf of the enfranchisement of women in the campaign of 1910-11, but if he has done so the claim is justified for without the aid of Senator Johnson I am sure our California women would not have the vote today. After reading the above mentioned article in the Times I feel it my duty to give very briefly a history of the Suffrage campaign of 1910-11 and Johnson's part in it. All who know me and the part I took in that campaign will, I am sure, unhesitatingly say that I know the history of the California Suffrage campaign as perhaps no other man or woman in the state does. I believe in justice and in bestowing honor where honor is due. In the beginning of 1910 there was not a woman Suffrage organization in Southern California. The sentiment for the Suffrage cause was at a very low ebb in the whole country. The Progressive movement in the Republican party called the "Lincoln Roosevelt" was in full swing. It seemed to me that was the psychological time for making the move for the enfranchisement of California women. After three months of earnest, careful, persistent individual solicitation I secured the endorsement of one hundred of the best and most influential men of Southern California for a movement to secure political rights to our women. So on the 5th day of April, of that year, 1910, I invited these one hundred citizens (Continued on Page 6)

FUN AT HIGH SCHOOL

STUDENTS OBSERVE JINKS DAY WITH AMUSING CHARACTER STUNTS

From the large number of apparently poor but honest followers of the plover assembled at the High School this morning, most of them in gaily patched but shrunken jeans which gave them a "peaked," shivery look though all wore the holiday expression of rubes released for a celebration, almost any observer would have been justified in assuming that there is a general movement "back to the farm" going on in our public schools. He would have been misled, however, for it is "jinks day" and the boys were simply doing character stunts. Fred Stofft was a typical specimen of these make-believe farmers.

Hobo gentlemen of the road ranked next in popularity. Atwood Dutcher was particularly diverting as a red-faced English tramp with the inevitable red sideburns, his belongings tied in a colored handkerchief slung over his shoulder on the end of a stick, conspicuous patches on his high-water pants, a corn-cob pipe in his mouth. Warren Meeker was a bare-kneed English rover, with dinky cap precariously perched upon his head, and worn corduroy belted jacket.

Herbert Besant was apparently an humble follower of the races, a "cullud gentleman" in blue satin vest, red neckerchief and worn black trousers.

Boyd Dennis as a two-footed satyr wore silver horns surmounting his tousled hair, leopard skins draped his person and over all hung a necklace of huge teeth.

By universal verdict the comedy prize was awarded to Paul Hutchinson, who represented a revised version of "Little Lord Fauntleroy." His long limbs were encased in knickerbockers over which fell a white middie blouse enlivened by a gay Windsor tie, his golden curls surmounted by a red felt hat of wide brim and dangling streamers.

Pudden (Erwin) Weaver came out from Los Angeles to join in the fun and was a surprising figure in a bandmaster's cap, white trousers, blue and white sweater coat snugly fitting over his rotund figure, on his feet odd striped socks and yarn slippers.

Paul Jenkins wearing red sideburns and consistently nondescript and shabby clothes of queer cut represented an English bum.

Rafael Montis was perhaps a bookmaker in close-fitting trousers and coat of large black and white plaid, striped red and white shirt and small derby hat.

ed for Sycamore Canyon Road.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, the sale of bonds as reported by the City Manager was approved, and the City Attorney requested to draw up the necessary resolution covering the sale.

On motion of Trustee Woodberry, the City Manager's recommendations as to expenditures were adopted.

Trustee Henry presented the following resolution, which was on his motion adopted as Resolution No. 1093, "Resolved that the proposition submitted by L. C. Brand for the purchase of $50,000.00 worth of water and light bonds at par and accrued interest, and the proposition of the local bankers of the City of Glendale for the purchase of a like amount at par and accrued interest, be accepted, and the sale of said bonds be awarded to said purchasers accordingly, it appearing that said proposed bids are the best that can be obtained."

The City Manager presented a communication in regard to the revenues of the city stating that the estimates for the fiscal year both as to revenues and expenses had been greatly exceeded. Present figures indicate that the receipts from miscellaneous revenue will exceed the estimate by approximately $5,500.00 and that the receipts from revenues of the water and light business will exceed the estimate by about $24,000.00. Outlay for material and supplies, especially on account of new connections for water and electric service and for power, also large expenditures were necessary for substation buildings and equipment. He therefore recommended certain increases in the budget, which on motion of Trustee Woodberry were approved and adopted.

The City Manager submitted a report recommending that the sum of $1,500.00 be set aside from the unappropriated revenues of the Public Service Department for the purpose of extending the lighting system to the Grand View District. While he believed that this sum would not be sufficient for the carrying out of the complete plans for such service, it will be sufficient to reach practically all of the residents on Sixth street, and portions of Vine avenue and Winchester and Justin avenues. On motion of Trustee Shaw, the recommendation was approved and it was so ordered.

The City Manager reported that in regard to the application of the Trustees of the Grammar School District for the vacation of an alley through their recently acquired property between Broadway and Wilson avenue, that the alley as at present laid out also runs through the property of other owners, whose consent for abandonment it will be necessary to obtain, and had so reported to School Superintendent R. D. White.

On motion of Trustee Shaw, it was ordered that City Attorney prepare proceedings for the opening of the alley to a full width of thirty feet on the westerly line of the High School property, with an assessment district comprising the frontage on both sides of the proposed alley, extending back as far as may be necessary. It was further ordered that the City Engineer furnish the City Attorney necessary descriptions for the opening of this alley.

The City Manager reported that Mr. Burke desires to recall the application made for a permit to erect a building, and on motion of Trustee Shaw, it was ordered that the application be denied.

On motion of Trustee Henry, in regard to the application made at the regular meeting of April 1, 1920, by the Henry-Brown Co. for permission to erect a warehouse next to their property on Wilson avenue, that the permit be granted.

A contract between the City of Glendale and E. W. Riggie, doing business as Southern California Drilling Company, for the boring of a well, was presented, and on motion of Trustee Shaw, the same was approved, and the President and Clerk authorized to sign on behalf of the city.

Trustee Woodberry presented a resolution, which on his motion was adopted as Resolution No. 1094, "A Resolution of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale ordering that all that portion of that certain alley in Tract No. 618 in the City of Glendale described herein be closed up, vacated, and abandoned, as contemplated in Resolution of Intention No. 1085."

On motion of Trustee Henry, the City Manager was authorized to purchase a new motorcycle and sell the old one now in use.

WAR USES OF PLASTE PAPIER

"Since the close of the war, we are learning of many new and ingenious devices that were used and were zealously guarded as secrets," says an article in Boys' Life, the Boy Scout Magazine, for March. "One of the most interesting of these was the use of plaste papier by the Camouflage Department for making up dummy heads, horses, tree stumps, big guns, etc.

"Plaste papier is really nothing more than wrapping paper dipped in plaste, which makes it plastic and pliable while the artist is modeling with it, and very hard and rigid after it dries. It was very light, being modeled as a hollow shell, and so could be carried about near the front line trenches easily.

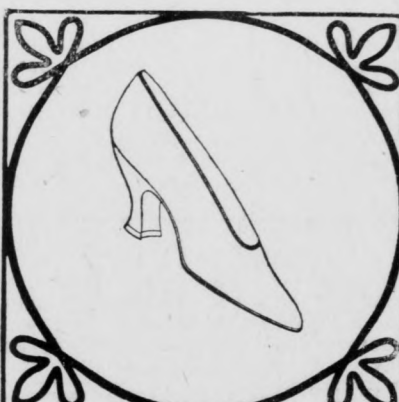

"To make this substance even more easily handled, Lieut. A. B. Jensen has invented a superskill modeling device, which consists of aluminum strips which describe the important lines of the head, neck and shoulders of a man and woman. This device enables anyone to secure the correct lines and proportions of the head, without interfering in the slightest with the modeler's originality. On the same frame one can model the head of President Wilson, a portrait of himself, the bust of Venus de Milo, or any other subject.

"A common use of the plaste papier was the modeling of dummy heads, painted up so that 20 yards away one could not distinguish them from real heads. They were used in the front line trenches very effectively to draw snipers' fire. Our men would hold these dummies up over the parapet of the trench, and the Hun sniper, thinking it a real man, would fire. The head would then be pulled down and examined; by observing just where the bullet entered the head and where it passed out, the angle from which the sniper fired could be determined and his location discovered.

"Plaste papier was used also for making observation posts, in which the observer could sit and watch the enemy's movements. One of the cleverest of these devices was the duplication of some object lying near the enemy trenches in the plaste papier. A dead horse lying in No Man's Land was carefully duplicated in hollow plaste papier and properly painted.

"One dark night the dead horse was dragged in and the paper horse put in its place. The Germans never noticed the difference, and one of our observers crawled into the paper horse before dawn each day, observed the movements of the enemy all day, day after day, and returned to our trenches as soon as darkness would cover him, with much valuable information. Tree stumps, of which all but about five feet or so had been destroyed by artillery, were often imitated in paper and furnished ideal observation posts for our men.

"Great guns were imitated in this material and placed in the vicinity of real guns that were carefully concealed through camouflage. The Boche observers sent out to discover the location of the real batteries that were doing the havoc to the enemy, would discover the paper guns only, and so the enemy artillery would train their fire on the dummy batteries and allow the real guns to continue their fire without being molested. The real guns were concealed by having their outlines painted out by means of broken forms of various colors painted all over them, and also by covering them with foliage."

Mid-Month List of Columbia Records

Jolson's "Swanee" Whistling Song

Al Jolson, exclusive Columbia artist, not only sings but melodiously whistles this song of longing for the South, his latest Sinbad hit. Coupled with "My Gal," sung by Frank Crumit, new exclusive Columbia tenor.

A-2884-85c

Big 6" Saxophones "Buddha-Dardanella"

The Columbia Saxophone Sextette plays this rollicking, rhythmic record of the "Buddha-Dardanella" fox-trot, punctuated by the popping of the big brass saxophone, which sounds just like a kettle-drum. Coupled with "Limehouse Nights," a novel one-step by these exclusive Columbia artists.

A-2876-85c

Bert Williams Has the Blues

"I'm Sorry I Ain't Got It, You Could Have It If I Had It" is the answer this exclusive Columbia artist always gets in this side-splitting song of the "Blues."

RELIABILITY

Rome was not built in a day—neither was any reliable business institution.

The House of L. G. Scovern Co. stands on a solid foundation—a principle of reliable service for particular people.

From the very beginning it has been our policy to maintain a high standard in all service rendered—and high standard does not mean high price; but it does mean the highest quality possible at any specified price.

Personals

Bert L. Cline has taken out a permit for a 4-room residence, which he is to erect for Mrs. Ida Loosen.

C. A. Webb is remodeling and making additions to his residence at 1229 E. Colorado at an estimated cost of $1000.

Miss Helen Wallace of 141 South Cedar is looking forward to the arrival this evening of her friend, Miss Ella Mitchell, of Des Moines, Iowa, to spend a few days with her.

Master Charles Bosserman, who was operated on for ear trouble last Tuesday at the Pacific Hospital, was brought home yesterday. He is improving very nicely.

Miss Evangeline Quackenbush of 1211 East Harvard, a young violinist of considerable promise, assisted the pianist in accompaniments at the Christian church revival meeting on Wednesday night and last night.

Another handsome residence is to be built in Selvas de Verdugo, on lot 4, tract 7, by S. L. Roland, who took out a permit for its erection yesterday. It is to have six rooms and the cost is given as $7000.

C. Stanford yesterday took out building permits for two houses to be erected for him by Henry Michel, one of four rooms at 714 North Pacific avenue, to cost $2500 and the other of five rooms at 469 Patterson avenue, to cost $4000.

Mrs. G. Phillips and Miss Eva Daniels entertained Thursday evening with a dinner in honor of Miss Katherine Desky, of Denver, Colo. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Salo Desky of Los Angeles, formerly of Glendale, Victor W. Daniels, Harold Phillips, Reba Phillips and the hostesses. The evening following the dinner was pleasantly spent with music.

Mrs. A. W. Tower represented the Tuesday Afternoon Club of this city at a picnic luncheon given this week by the District Board of the Federation at Sycamore Grove for the members who had served on various committees at the District Convention in Inglewood. Between forty and forty-five ladies were present. The picnic lunch was followed by a discussion of convention topics and suggestions for future conventions. Mrs. Thomas Sidney Exley, head of the district organization, presided.

W. J. Clendenin, who is living temporarily in Los Angeles, has lost none of his love for Glendale and his faith in her future. Talking to the Evening News yesterday, he said it is wonderful the charm Glendale has for easterners. He instanced more than one family that had come out to stay a week or a month and had remained to settle down for life. He is much interested in the building program of the Presbyterian church and is a member of the syndicate that bought the lots owned by the church at the corner of Maryland and Wilson avenues, to build a bungalow court on.

PALMER AVENUE GRANDMAS

Grandma Lucas of 331 West Palmer avenue was happily surprised when she went out Easter morning to see how many eggs her Easter bunny had left and on peeping into the nest found seventeen "sure enough" bunny eggs. Perhaps if she had taken a mirror along she would have seen thirty-four.

Grandma West of 119 West Palmer avenue gave an Easter dinner to her Sunday School class of fifteen little tots, all under six years of age. Inasmuch as it was the birthday of one scholar she made him a large cake which was decorated with a miniature hen and brood of chickens. Mrs. Proctor assisted her in serving the feast which was a real dinner and not just refreshments of cream and cake. The little guests seemed to enjoy it very much and left for their homes early in the afternoon.

MRS. SCHWAB ENTERTAINS FOR EASTERN GUESTS

Mrs. P. J. Schwab of 701 North Maryland Ave. entertained yesterday in honor of Mrs. Charlie Crane of Clear Lake, Iowa, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. K. Hill, of 420 North Kenwood. A two-course luncheon was served. Those present as guests, besides the honoree, were Mesdames Bessie McKee, R. M. Brown, V. M. Hollister, Wm. Tanner and H. E. Streight. The color scheme for the decorations was yellow and white.

BAD CHECK PASSED

An unusually tall woman, accompanied by a little girl apparently about three years old, purchased a 30c package of dates at the Basket Grocery and tendered for payment a check on the First National Bank of Glendale for $10.50, payable to Miss Ruth Roland and signed Mrs. J. R. McGrary. It was endorsed on the back in what appeared to be the same handwriting as that on the front side and the address of Ruth Roland set down as 441 Vine street. There is no such number. The young lady clerk who waited on the customer gave her $10.20 in change. The check went through the usual course and came back marked "No funds." Information was then given to the police and a warning sent out to other cities to look out for the woman, who is described as fully 6 feet 2 inches tall and apparently about 30 years of age.

REVIVAL MEETING VISITORS

Several members of the Pico Heights Christian Church attended the revival meeting last evening at Central Christian. They were H. B. Peck, wife and daughter, Florence, Dr. S. A. Donaldson and wife and Mrs. Edgar Lloyd Smith. Dr. Donaldson, who was a great evangelistic song leader when in his prime, still has a very sweet voice, though he is past 70 years of age. He and Mrs. Smith sang a very beautiful duet last night. Two other guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fiscus, who arrived at 6 o'clock from Marshalltown, Iowa, and accompanied Evangelist Root to the meeting. They are to be song evangelists for Mr. Root in subsequent revival meetings, the first series beginning next week at Lawndale.

The entertainment to have been given at St. Mark's Church this evening has been postponed until Thursday.

to a banquet given by myself for the purpose of a Men's League to secure political equality without regard to sex. Sixty of the invited guests met around the banquet table at the Angelus Hotel and organized the Men's Political Equality League for Suffrage. The newspapers of Los Angeles had all been previously interviewed on the subject with the result that all except the Los Angeles Times agreed to support the movement. The Times promised to give the cause fair treatment, so far as news was concerned, but would be against it editorially and otherwise. I am pleased to say that the Times kept its promise clear through the campaign. The newspapers sent to that banquet some of their very best reporters. Brilliant speeches were made, great enthusiasm was created. The reporters caught the fire of the occasion and vied with each other in their reports. The movement spread rapidly, not only in this state but all over the United States. It was called the renaissance of suffrage. Hiram Johnson was the candidate for Governor and was the standard bearer of the Progressive movement. The Men's League devoted all of its energies that year to secure the election of a legislature favorable to the submission of the Woman's Suffrage question to the people. During the heat of the campaign Mr. Johnson visited Los Angeles and I being the president of the League, and its representative, called on Mr. Johnson at the Alexandria Hotel. I said to him: "Mr. Johnson, I am very anxious for your election as Governor and will not ask you to take a position on the Suffrage question which you think might hurt your candidacy, but I would like to know how far you could go in helping the Suffrage cause." He replied: "Mr. Braly, without any hesitation I pledge you that I will do all I can to have the question submitted to the voters of the people, and you may publish this statement upon the housetops, if you think it will help you."

By the aid of Hiram Johnson, we Suffragists secured a suffrage plank in the State Republican platform. Mr. Johnson and a Progressive legislature were elected in November of that year. The legislature met January, 1911; on the 1st or 2nd day of its convening the Suffrage resolution was placed before each House. The Assembly being largely Progressive Republicans and favorable to Suffrage, there was no fight in that house. The Senate being composed of forty members, twenty of them being elected every two years, there were twenty new members and twenty hold-overs. Of the new members nearly all were for the Suffrage resolution; of the old members nearly all against it. And so it was a merry fight in the Senate.

I was in Sacramento from the 1st day of the legislature until a resolution was finally passed, requiring three weeks of arduous, anxious work. The Suffrage committees, both from the South and the North, mostly women, were there in daily attendance, pleading with the Senators who were opposed to vote for the measure and give them an open field for a fair fight. Finally twenty-three or twenty-five Senators were lined up as favorable and not another one could be secured. A meeting of the joint Suffrage committees was held in the Sacramento Hotel. Discouragement and gloom oppressed all. They were nearly ready to give up and go home. I reminded them that the darkest hour is just before dawn and said: "Let us work on a few more days and see what may come forth." That was the crisis. Hiram Johnson during his campaign had proclaimed in every city, town and hamlet that if he were elected he would, to the very best of his ability, have every plank in the Republican platform fulfilled. Remembering this pledge, I called together a few of the staunch suffrage Senators in a private dining room for dinner. I laid the matter before them, saying: "Gentlemen, we are up against a stone wall, we Suffragists can do no more. The Governor is our only hope." We all agreed to see the Governor on the morrow. The next day he was interviewed. The third day word was passed out that the required twenty-eight votes necessary to pass the resolution were assured, that being a two-thirds vote. Very soon thereafter the vote was called on the Suffrage amendment and to the surprise of many Senators, twenty-eight voted yes, then there was a hurrying among the Senators to change their vote from no, to yes, until there were thirty-five for and only five against. Now let me say, if it had not been for Governor Johnson, the Suffrage resolution would have failed and had it failed then God only knows when it would ever have prevailed. So I say,—All honor to Senator Johnson, for he saved the day for the Suffrage cause. If my esteemed friend, Senator Lee Gates, one of those at the dinner party that gloomy night, and who was the greatest champion of Woman Suffrage in the Senate and the state were alive to speak now he would verify every word which I have written. I am sure that the ladies referred to in the Times article must have been unaware of the facts in the case.

JOHN HYDE BRALY.

SEE THE POINT

If you use an ordinary pencil or a patent pencil of the usual kind you very seldom see the point just when you want it most. There is only one satisfactory pencil that is always sharp yet never needs sharpening. That is—

The Wahl Eversharp Perfect Pointed Pencil

It is built with the precision of a watch, yet strong and sturdy, without flimsy snaps or springs, a mechanical masterpiece totally different in principle from any other pencil made. The magazine holds eighteen inches of extra lead, enough to write a quarter of a million words.

The pencil throughout is made of the best materials, and is the finest writing instrument ever made. Leads and eraser can be changed in the twinkling of an eye.

In buying a pencil of this kind insist on getting a Wahl Eversharp if you want pencil satisfaction.

We have a very nice line of these pencils in many styles. They are ideal gifts for either men or women and especially suitable and acceptable for students.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER A WAR?

A shrewd businessman describes the usual course of events after a war about like this: First, the people, weary of deprivation, turn to buying in great quantities the things they could not get during the war. That stimulates production, particularly of luxuries and non-essentials. The stimulus leads inevitably to overproduction along these lines. Overproduction leads to a clogged market, difficulty in selling and consequently difficulty in meeting financial obligations. Now, banking is the most timid profession—bankers have to be cautious. Bankers, therefore, observing the situation, naturally begin shutting off credit to the business institutions concerned. Thus begins a wave of business depression which may sweep the country.

After the Civil war it took eight years to reach that point. How long will it take now? The businessman referred to reminds his friends that "things move faster than they used to." Are we to expect, then, another "panic of '73" in five years, or four years, or three?

The situation is not entirely parallel. Fortunately we have the safe-guard of a far better banking system now. But current developments seem to run pretty true to form. And there is always the possibility of being sideswiped by a European panic.

No financier, however pessimistic, suggests that a panic is inevitable. The only question is whether the nation will take, in time, the measures necessary to forestall it. This means, on the part of the general public, the stopping of unnecessary expenditure and the saving of money, which is an old story. On the part of business it means something of which little has yet been said, but which is bound to be forced on the attention of businessmen more and more earnestly. That is the necessity of curtailing expansion in industries that produce luxuries, and concentrating capital and effort on the production of necessities.—Exchange.

MONDAY'S ELECTION

fice of Mattison B. Jones and at the beginning of the present year became the law partner of Mr. Jones. In the meantime, however, he had responded to the call of his country and worn the uniform of the U. S. A. for nearly eighteen months, being discharged at Camp Taylor with the rank of lieutenant. He has no other plan than to make Glendale his permanent home. He is a member of the City Library Board and is deeply interested in Glendale's welfare.

F. J. Willett

F. J. Willett was born in Lansingburgh, N. Y., where he grew to manhood. As a trained mechanic he served the government for twenty-two years in its ordnance department, for eight years at Watervliet, New York, and for fourteen years at the Rock Island, Illinois, arsenal. Resigning his position there he came to California and for ten years has resided in Glendale where he first engaged in a produce business, handling fruits and vegetables, then conducted a bakery business and finally established the cigar stand he now has at 109 East Broadway. During the war he abandoned it to return to his former employment as a skilled mechanic on government work in a Los Angeles factory, but after the signing of the armistice came back to his cigar stand.

John C. Sherer

Glendale's city clerk was a child of the sunny south, who first saw the light in Cecil county, Maryland. In 1875 he came to California and five years later purchased land in what is now Glendale, of which he took possession in the spring of 1883. That property was named by Mrs. Sherer "Somerset Farm," after the county in which she was born. He was one of the pioneers of the section and by reason of his varied ability was called upon to fill many offices. One of the organizers of the Southern California Fruit Exchange he has seen it grow to large and important proportions. He also helped to organize the Verdugo Water Company thirty-six years ago. Ever since its organization he has been a director and has held all the offices in its gift, being now president of the company. He was the first cashier in the Bank of Glendale and was the publisher of the Glendale News from 1907 to 1913 when it was a weekly paper. So much of his life has been passed in the San Fernando Valley that he is inseparably identified with its interests.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMPANY

San Francisco, Calif., April 8, 1920.

To the Public and Our Employees:

During the day, switchmen and yardmen have been leaving the service of this company and of other roads in Southern California and in yards on both sides of San Francisco Bay without any notice and without presenting any grievances. In thus abandoning their duties they have violated the provisions of the Transportation Act of 1920, and the orders and instructions of their own Brotherhoods. They have ignored the public interest in the movement of passengers and mail and of freight whether perishable or not. The action of these men, who are a very small minority of the employees, has the effect of preventing railroad operation in the principal railroad terminals of California, thus injuring the business of the public on the one hand and affecting injuriously the great majority of the employees on the other hand. The day has passed, and yet, after diligent inquiry, both among the men and among the Brotherhood officers, there is no knowledge of why these men struck and what they expect to gain by striking. Under the circumstances we are forced to notify the public that the company cannot at present accept perishable freight or livestock to be moved to, from or through the scenes of trouble, and can accept other freight only subject to delay. We hope the delays occasioned by these embargoes will be brief because, the great body of experienced and thoughtful employees take no part in this strike and have no sympathy with it for it is wholly without warrant. It is in such conflict with the reasonable expectations of the public that we believe the men on sober second thought will revise their views and return to their work. We prefer that they return, but in any circumstances the service must be restored. In this we rely on the support of the public and of that great body of our employees who recognize their obligations and live up to them.

watch-dog of the treasury. So excellent has been his service that no candidate has entered the lists against him. He calls himself a badger because Wisconsin is his native state. The greater part of his school days were spent in Iowa, however, and then business interests drew him to Atlanta, Georgia, where he was engaged in the lumber and grain trade for many years. His lumber purchases took him all over the Southern States and finally he journeyed still further away and ten years ago came to Southern California, locating in Glendale, where he conducted a lumber business for six and a half years, and organized the Independent Lumber Company, afterwards sold to the Fox-Woodsum Company with whom he remained as manager until appointed to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Hoffman as City Treasurer. At the conclusion of that term two years ago, he was elected to succeed himself.

tive dance "Spring" by Esther Ralston, who gave a lovely, consistent impersonation of dancing "hoyden spring," to the accompaniment of the chorus.

One of the most artistic chorus numbers on the program was "Since You Went Away" (Johnson-Harris) in which Mrs. Hartley Shaw was soloist with what might be termed a chorus obligato which was very beautiful and which aroused such enthusiasm that it was repeated as an encore. "Oh the Summer," was another very beautiful chorus number, followed by "Nursery Rhymes" which paraphrased the Mother Goose melodies to the vast entertainment of the audience. The last chorus was the very beautiful song written by Charles Parker, husband of the chorus director, "Now Pray We for America," which has been heard before, but which cannot be repeated too often. Following this number which closed the program the chorus received quite an ovation of applause. Mrs. Rossiter sang "That's a World in June" (Spruss) and a very pleasing encore number, and the trio delighted with several selections, the last and most ambitious being Nocturne Op. 9, No. 2 (Chopin). Following is the personnel of the chorus:

Second Sopranos

Mrs. G. D. Roach, Secretary-Treasurer; Mrs. H. V. Henry, Mrs. J. Baum, Mrs. Frank Worsley, Mrs. R. A. Puffer, Mrs. L. E. Richardson, Miss Ina Whittaker, Mrs. Kirk B. Smith.

Kathleen and Dorothy Woods were jesters in short scarlet silk petticoats hung with slashed ruffles of parti-colored cloth to which bells were attached and carrying the customary jester's bauble.

Mary Florence Pate and Violet Hall effected a combination as bride and groom, the bride's long wedding veil being of white mosquito netting crowned with lemon boughs set with young lemons, her pearl necklace composed of young onion bulbs with a scarlet pepper as a pendant, her bride's bouquet a collection of turnips and beets. Jane Snyder and Miss Jones, the Spanish teacher, were very trim in nurses' costumes.

Mr. Fullen, the writing teacher, contented himself with a white suit and on his head a tall fool's cap.

Miss Loomis was in maid's costume.
